

Account Change Notice

As previously communicated, your Elite Rewards® credit card program from Bank of America is ending and will soon be replaced with the BankAmericard Rewards® program. Please note important dates below regarding changes to your account.

- You must redeem your Elite Rewards points as of October 31, 2015, or they will expire and no longer be available for redemption. You may redeem your Elite Rewards points at www.eliterewards.com or by calling 1.877.528.9008.
- In October 2015, your Elite Rewards credit card account will be replaced with a new BankAmericard Rewards account¹. With your new account, you will earn one BankAmericard Rewards point for every dollar you spend on purchases. Points may be redeemed for cash, travel, gift cards, and more.
- Your replacement BankAmericard Rewards credit card is a continuation of your present account relationship, and will be sent automatically. Your account number and PIN will not change. If you have a Bank of America® online banking login and password already, they will remain the same as well.

See other side for important information about this change.

With your new BankAmericard Rewards® credit card you'll experience the following changes:

- You will earn one point for every dollar spent on purchases and there is no limit to the number of points you can earn.
- Redeem your points for cash, travel, gift cards, and other exciting rewards. Points redemptions for cash are a new and valuable option for your credit card account.
- You will always know the amount of points you have available for redemption. Points are displayed on each month's billing statement and you can view them with your Bank of America® online banking login.

Full BankAmericard Rewards program rules will be provided shortly after you receive your new card(s).

¹ Continued use of your credit card and/or receipt of a new card requires your account to be open and available for use in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Credit Card Agreement. Bank of America at its sole discretion shall determine what replacement credit card product is provided in the case of expiration/termination of any credit card program. Continue to use your current account until your new card(s) arrive(s). The terms and conditions of your current credit card account, including any recent or future amendments, will apply to your new account. All account history (including existing balances and credits) will transfer to your new card(s). When you receive your new card(s), please destroy your old card(s).
