Certain types of withdrawals and transfers from savings accounts are limited to a total of 6 per monthly cycle. This limit is governed by federal Regulation D and our Deposit Agreement and Disclosures. However, this limit doesn’t apply to transactions made at financial centers, by mail or at an ATM. (Please note that Withdrawal Limit Fees still apply to these types of transactions.)

If you exceed the transaction limitations on more than an occasional basis, we'll convert your account to a checking account that will no longer earn interest.

Interest rate policy

Interest rate and interest calculation

Your account has a variable interest rate, which means the interest rate may change. Interest rates for your account are based on balance tiers, are set at our discretion and may change at any time without notice.

To calculate interest, we apply a daily periodic rate to the collected balance in your account each day. The daily rate that applies will depend on which balance tier your end-of-day balance falls in. We compounding and pay any interest earned monthly. Interest is only paid in whole cents and we use standard rounding rules to calculate the amount. This means that an amount less than half of one cent is rounded down to zero, and an amount of half of one cent or more is rounded up to the next whole cent.

Extra interest

Extra interest is earned automatically when an account owner is enrolled in the Preferred Rewards program. The interest rate will increase by at least 5%, 10% or 20% over the standard rate, and is based on the Preferred Rewards tiers of Gold, Platinum and Platinum Honors, respectively. We may decide to pay a higher rate.

Where can I find information about current interest rates?

You can find current rate information by checking bankofamerica.com, calling the number on your account statement or visiting a financial center.

When your deposits are available

Cash, direct deposits, wire transfers: On the day we receive them.

Checks: Usually the next business day if deposited before the financial center or ATM cutoff time.

Mobile Check Deposit: Usually the next business day if deposited by applicable cutoff times (please refer to Deposit Checks, then Help in the Mobile Banking app for additional details and terms and conditions). Dollar limits apply to this service, vary by account and are communicated during the deposit process.

If we place a hold on your deposit, we’ll let you know the hold reason and when your funds will be available. This is typically provided at the time of deposit but may also be mailed later. Deposits greater than $5,000 and checks deposited within the first 30 days of account opening may be held longer.

Overdraft fees

• To help you avoid fees, we won’t authorize ATM withdrawals or everyday debit card purchases when you don’t have enough money in your account at the time of the transaction.

• When we determine you don’t have enough money in your account to cover other items such as checks or scheduled payments, we’ll either authorize and pay the item and overdraft your account (an overdraft item), or decline or return the item unpaid (a returned item). When this happens, you may be charged a fee. See details below.

<thead>

We’ll charge this fee for each item over $1 that we authorize and pay, including recurring debit card payments. However, we won’t charge this fee if your account balance is overdrawn by $1 or less.

We’ll charge this fee for each item over $1 that we decline or return unpaid. One-time or recurring declined debit card payments aren’t charged this fee.

With Overdraft Protection, if you’re about to overdraw your account, we’ll automatically transfer available funds from your linked savings or eligible checking account. Only 1 transfer fee charged per day that a transfer is made. However, we won’t charge this fee for any item that is $1 or less.

The Overdraft Protection Transfer Fee is waived for transfers to a Bank of America Advantage Relationship Banking™, Bank of America Advantage® with Tiered Interest Checking or Bank of America Advantage® Regular Checking account.
